

FOOTBALL BOOTS

- Football boots are designed for football.
- Football boots were invented in the 16th century.
- As the rules of football developed so did the shoes designed for its game.
- In the 19th century used high leather work boots with steel toes for play. For more stability on difficult terrain, players hammered in steel screws.
- The emergence of football rules also caused a shift in the design and functionality of football boots. All players had to wear the same shoes.
- The pegs had to be rounded and there were six of them.
- After the end of World War II, there was a significant shift in the development of football boots.

